Grand May Close Without Making Any Treaty With Hungary.

> Paris, Oct. 31-The end of November may see the close of the Paris peace conference, which has negotiat-ed the peace treaties with Germany and Austria and has carried the negotiations with Bulgaria well towards

> Unless the conference can speedily reach an agreement with Rumania and compel it to discontinue its interference in Hungarian affairs there seems little chance that a peace treaty can be negotiated with Hungary at present, in which case the conference will probably close without making that treaty.

The Adriatic question will not nessarily prolong the life of the conference, and there is no disposition ference, and there is no disposition expected that Delmar's confession will among many of the peace delegates be followed by further arrests. the conference much longer for the discussion of European political questions involved in the Rumanian and Italian difficulties.

ment of the Rumanian tangle or the at the Atlantic hotel. abandonment of the effort at disentanglement is expected very shortly.

Indications are that the Bulgarian treaty will be signed within a week or ten days. Then the discussions will begin with Rumania in the attempt to settle the questions arising from its seizure of Hungarian prop-erty and its objections to guarantee-ing the rights of Minorities, which was the cause of its refusal to sign the Austrian peace treaty.
